History of corner establishment since Original Government Survey

This corner was established in 1847 by Henry Moddin. Fred Holden visited the corner in 1901 and again on both visits Holden observed one original bearing tree. In 1906 he tied to g new White but on neither occasion was the corner remonumented

Description of corner evidence found:

*Neal & Gerald Green.

A fence corner for fences from the north and east was found which is said to be the corner location according to the owners of the property to the south and west. * This location gives a reasonable distance and bearing from the existing monument at the northwest corner. The distance from this monument to the existing monument at the northeast corner of the section is short of the recorded 40.03 chains, however I feel that the existing fence represents the best location for the corner.
