Mental Health Coalition established workgroups to move forward on objectives: Social media and outreach, education and training, and advocacy.
What is our capacity for 2024? What are our goals?	Lunch and Learns? Resilience Film screening?	Lunch and Learns are easy way to engage community: May (mental health), July (minority mental health), and November (Veteran focused) and lean into observances. ACEs/TIC training on May 13 at noon (April and Sierra), historical trauma and unconscious bias in July (Ho Chunk), Veteran-focus in November (Carole and Terry). *Reach out to Ho Chunk for historical trauma presentation and see when they’re available. Mondays for lunch and learns at noon! Eryn to create flyer (this year have separate flyers and link to social media to see what else we have coming) and April to do press release. Some communities are hosting a screening of the S Word for September. Recovery Rally at Tomah VA to be an annual event (October)

		Resilience film screening: June is PTSD month (June 10th tentatively from 1-3 p.m.). Need to find in-person location – Sierra will check Veterans Hall, American Legion in Sparta. Plan outreach at next meeting. Check out the Resilient communities website here. Work with John Gessner to promote all events.
